

HORSE PAINTINGS NEWSLETTER

September 2011

Adventures on a Wild Horse Roundup

I had the privilege to see some of America's most beautiful and colorful horses this past weekend when I traveled to Rock Springs, Wyoming, to watch a BLM wild horse roundup. I've blogged about my adventures and posted lots of photos from the trip. If you are curious, click here to check it out! I can't wait to start working on some wild horse paintings! Here are just a couple photos.

New York Horse Paintings Update

The Beautiful Horses of New York series is going wonderfully well! I am almost done with the first painting, and there are 17 that are currently "in progress" — at various stages of completion. Next month's newsletter will feature that first painting— and maybe more! You might be surprised to learn that two of the horses in the New York series are horses that were adopted from the BLM. They were rounded up off the range and now are living large in New York!

See more Horse Paintings by Karen Brenner on her website.

Questions or comments? Email Karen at kmbrenner@hotmail.com

To unsubscribe from this newsletter, email us at kmbrenner@hotmail.com with "Unsubscribe" in the subject line.